DEFENDANTS’ INITIAL DISCLOSURES PURSUANT TO FEDERAL RULE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE 26(A)

Defendants hereby submit their Initial Disclosures to Plaintiffs, Consolidated Plaintiffs, and Interested Parties under Rule 26(a)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Defendants reserve the right to supplement these Initial Disclosures as additional discovery, investigation, and analysis may warrant. Defendants also do not waive any protections provided by any potential privileges, including but not limited to, the legislative privilege, the attorney work product protection, attorney-client privilege, or any other applicable privilege, protection, doctrine, or immunity. Defendants likewise do not waive the right to object, on any and all grounds, to (1) the evidentiary use of the information contained in these Initial Disclosures; and (2) discovery requests relating to these Initial Disclosures. Defendants also incorporate by reference Defendants’ Motion to Dismiss and do not believe Plaintiffs have stated any claims on which relief can be granted and without waiving the same. Defendants provide the following disclosure responses based on the allegations contained in Plaintiffs’ pleadings.

INITIAL DISCLOSURES

A. The name and, if known, the address and telephone number of each person likely to have discoverable information—along with the subjects of that information—that the disclosing party may use to support its claims or defenses, unless the use would be solely for impeachment.
